Stiles Finishing Technologies Introduces the Q-One Spraying Machine from Makor

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. – Stiles Machinery Inc. introduces the Q-One paper belt reciprocating spraying machine from Makor. The Q-One combines the advantages of automation with the versatility for small batches and quick coating changes. This machine provides a high-quality finish for an affordable value.

The Q-One, part of an array of spray machines from Makor, features up to four easily interchangeable spray guns, a removable paper trolley for quick access, a part shape reader to reduce overspray, a vacuum belt system that accurately controls the feed rate, and much more.

Stiles Machinery began distributing Makor equipment in 2010. “As the leading distributor of world-class machinery, Stiles is very excited to represent Makor Group finishing products,” says Stephan Waltman, VP of Sales and Marketing. “They’re impressive growth over the past 40 years has been achieved by a dedication to producing equipment that delivers absolutely top-notch finishes in a practical and economic way. They see a finishing challenge faced by woodworkers, and find a solution. Makor’s focus toward total customer satisfaction is clearly aligned with the goals of Stiles.”
