FIND YOUR AUDIENCE

For nearly seven decades, the Architectural Woodwork Institute (AWI) has consistently advanced the standards and resources for quality assurance in interior architectural woodworking. Now, we stand at the head of the industry as the most valuable resource worldwide in developing, promoting, and improving woodwork and cabinetry.

And you can be part of that too.

When you advertise with AWI, you can share your message with like-minded professionals including:

-  Over 10,250 motivated website visitors every month
-  Over 7,700 quarterly industry subscribers for Design Solutions, seeking the latest and greatest examples of architectural woodwork in the industry
-  A highly engaged email subscriber list with over 3,500+ readers and an average open rate of 28%

ADVERTISE IN DESIGN SOLUTIONS, OUR QUARTERLY WOODWORKING MAGAZINE

Design Solutions magazine is distributed globally to designers, construction professionals, and AWI members. It's a specialized publication that covers detail such as the custom use of wood, leather, fabrics, laminates, special finishes, plastics, stone, metals, glass, wall and floor coverings, windows and doors, and hardwood integrated with architectural products.

Our readers value Design Solutions for its quality editorial. Unlike other publications, Design Solutions regularly includes detailed drawings of published projects, which introduce readers to new ideas and techniques. It's this that makes it such a popular resource for woodworking industry professionals.

By advertising your architectural specialty products and services in Design Solutions, you're guaranteed to reach a qualified and eager audience.

Design Solutions is distributed to designers, construction professionals, and AWI members globally, this informative publication is unique in that it regularly includes detailed drawings of published projects, introducing new ideas and techniques to readers.

All architectural specialty products find a qualified and eager audience in Design Solutions readers. They look forward to the publication's quality editorial, which covers the custom use of wood, leather, fabrics, laminates, special finishes, plastics, stone, metals, glass, wall and floor coverings, windows and doors, and hardwood integrated with architectural products.
